Williams-Williams.

Richmond society was largely represented at the wedding of Miss Kate Burwell Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Williams, of Orange, Va., to Mr. Edward Victor Williams, son of the late John H. Williams and Mrs. Williams, of this city, last evening at 9 o'clock, in St. Thomas's Church, Orange.
The church was decorated in spring flowers, carrying out the idea of green and gold. Mr. Glenn C. Gortrell, of Washington, D. C., a friend of the contracting parties, was at the organ and rendered the wedding marches from Mendelssohn and "Lohengrin." During the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rev. John E. Hansbrough, portions of "Elsa's Dream" from "Lohengrin" were played.
The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Mary Kate Williams, and the best man, Mr. Henry Ames Williams, the brother of the groom. The maid of honor was groomed in pale yellow messaline trimmed with valenciennes and Irish crochet lace, and carried white flowers tied with yellow tulle.
The twelve bridesmaids, attired in pretty toilettes of Paris mousseline and valenciennes lace, and having bouquets of jonquills tied with yellow, were: Misses Lillian Logan, of Salem, Va.; Bertha Nolting and Adele Williams, of Richmond; Virginia Roper, of Norfolk; Va.; Fannie Gay Catlett, of Staunton, Va.; Nannie Shackelford, Miriam Hill, Nellie Marshall, Mabel Moore, Armistead Taliaferro, Georgia Slaughter Botten and Carrie Bruce Morton, all of Orange, Va. Miss Marie Ward Skelton Williams, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Williams, of this city, in a dainty frock of white mull and lace, officiated as flower girl.

The list of groomsmen included Messrs. William Gay Ferguson, John Currie, Deane Maury, William C. Noiland and Dr. Murat Willis, of Richmond; Mr. Hiram M. Smith, of the University of Virginia; Mr. Joseph G. Walker, of Woodberry Forest; Mr. Howard G. Shackelford, Dr. Lawrence S. Ricketts, Meers, William C. Graham, Maxey G. Field and John G. Williams, Jr., of Orange, Va.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her away. She was beautifully gowned in white messaline with yoke, sleeves and panels of princess lace. Her tulle veil hung from a coronet formed of lace and orange blossoms and her flowers were lilies of the valley and white orchids.

The ceremony was followed by a largely attended reception at "Rose-lawn," the home of the bride's parents. The house was charmingly decorated in green and white and many beautiful wedding gifts were displayed.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. John H. Williams, Miss Louise Chammy Williams, Mrs. Henry Ames Williams, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith, Miss Claire Smith, Miss Anita Cussens, Miss Bessie Tower, Miss Josephine Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. G. William Long, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Cadot, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Williams and little daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Doran Wingfield, of Richmond; Miss Alice Eager, of New York; Mrs. Joseph D. Logan of Salem, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Byrd, of Gloucester, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Willis, of Theological Seminary; Mr. and Mrs. David H. Griffith, of Westmoreland county, Va.; Mr. Colville Griffith, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Macon and Mrs. Frank G. Paulson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. George L. Browning, of Madison, Va.; Miss Amy Catlett, of Staunton, Va.; Miss M. L. Grymes, of Baltimore, and a large gathering of Orange friends.

The bride was left last evening for New York. They will sail on Thursday, April 25th, by the America for a brief trip abroad. After the 1st of June they will make their home in Richmond.

Epps-Becker.

One of the most beautiful marriages of the post-Easter season took place last evening at 6 o'clock in Park Place

DAILY FASHION HINTS

A house gown of light ecru chiffon voile and white china silk. The tunic is of the voile, ornamented with painted panes in natural colors and embroidered rings. The satin binding and empire girdle are pale lavender.

Methodist Church, when Miss Clara Virginia Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Charles Becker, became the bride of Mr. Frank Dashiell Epps. Rev. Dr. J. J. Gravatt, of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, were the officiating clergymen.

The church was profusely decorated with palms, bride roses and amilies, and the soft glow from many candles rendered the scene doubly attractive. The organ, playing appropriate selections before and during the ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lily Madeline Becker, and Miss Ruth Burton, as maids of honor. They were beautifully gowned in violet pantheon silk, made princess over chiffon and tulle, with trimmings of velvet and cream lace applique. They wore white hats, with plumes, and carried Leghorn baskets filled with pink roses and tied with gauze.

Other attendants were the best man, Mr. Jack L. Epps, and the ushers—Messrs. George W. Epps, Jr., H. Bayliss Epps, Walter G. Turpin, Edward S. Hazen, Earl C. Boudard and C. S. Penon, Messrs. P. H. Estes and William B. Robinson, assisted the ushers.

The bride entered with her father to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin." She was exquisitely gowned in white calcium silk made over chiffon and tulle, and elaborately trimmed, with yoke and panels of princess lace. She also wore a hat of princess lace, trimmed with white plumes. Her flowers were lilies of the valley.

The bride's mother was very handsome in black lace over cream chiffon and tulle, while Mrs. Epps, the groom's mother, wore a stylish gown of black lace, over silk. The bride's father returned to the bride's home, No. 2501 Grove Avenue, after the wedding, when the cake was cut with much ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. George Epps, parents of the groom, entertained very charming Monday evening in honor of the young couple. The bride's parents gave an informal reception to the bridal party after the rehearsal Friday evening.

Among the many beautiful wedding gifts of cut-glass, china and mahogany, is a handsome loving cup presented to the bride by the Alumnae Association of Woman's College, of which she is the president.

Mr. and Mrs. Epps left last evening for New York and other Northern cities. They will be at home to their friends after May 15th, at No. 104 North Linden Street.

Among those who came from a distance to attend the wedding were: Mrs. Egbert N. Leonard, of New York, who wore a white princess gown over pink satin and rose hat; Miss J. Frances Williams, of Laurel, Md., and Mrs. John Townley, of Albemarle county.

Kaempf-Saunders.

A quiet wedding will take place this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth Walters, No. 1420 Park Avenue, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Patterson Walters and Mr. Robert Clayton Aunsbaugh, of Norfolk. The Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon, of Grace Street Presbyterian Church, will officiate.

Miss Nellie Christian Walters will attend the bride as maid of honor, and Mr. Frederick Aunsbaugh will act as best man.

The bride party was entertained last evening at an informal reception.

After a Northern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Aunsbaugh will make their home in Norfolk.

Among the out-of-town guests who are here to attend the marriage are: Mrs. James Norton and Mr. and Mrs. George Calhoun Walters, all of Atlanta, Ga.; Colonel Edward Edmondson and Miss Lucy and Mable Edmondson, of Staunton, Va.

Amphlett-Marshall.

The date of the wedding of Miss Mary Blackford Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Lewis Marshall, of Washington, D. C., to Mr. Richard F. Amphlett, of Wychbold Hall, Worcestershire, England, will take place, Tuesday, April 30th, in St. Thomas's Church, Washington. Miss Alene Stokes, of this city, a first cousin of Mr. Marshall, will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids Miss Rebecca Nash, of Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Anne Phinizy, of Augusta, Ga. Little Miss Helen Curtler, of England, will be flower girl, and Master Charles Watkins, of Richmond, page.

The bride will be attended by her best man, and the ushers: Messrs. Barry Marshall and John Thompson, of New York; St. Julien Marshall, of Portsmouth, Va.; Albert Baker, of Winchester, Va.; L. L. Nicholson, Jr., Dr. Charles H. James, Dr. R. S. Beale and Mr. Rawlins Hume, all of Washington.

The engagement has been announced.

Miss Montague is the first cousin of Miss Helen Montague, and Mrs. Arthur J. LeRoy, of Richmond. Her marriage will take place early next winter. Lieutenant Mastin is a son of the late Thomas Mastin, of Philadelphia, and was graduated from the Naval Academy in the class of 1896. He is now stationed at Philadelphia.

Mr. O'Keefe-Nolan.

Miss Janie Marie Nolan, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Nolan, and Mr. Frank O'Keefe will be quietly married this morning at 7:30 o'clock in the home of the bride, No. 2107 Jefferson Avenue. The Rev. Father Hugh McKee-frey will celebrate the nuptial mass.

The parlor will be prettily decorated with palms and white flowers, and the improvised altar will bear white altar candles. Miss McSwain will have charge of the music.

Attendants will be Mr. John Nolan, best man; Messrs. James McCabe, James S. Manning, Frank M. Catogoli, Jr., Charles P. Epps and Dr. T. B. Leonard.

The bride will wear a going-away gown of gray chiffon cloth with hat and gloves to match and will carry a bride's roses.

After a wedding tour to the Northern cities, including a visit to the groom's sister in Wilmington, Del., Mr. O'Keefe and his bride will reside at No. 2421 East Grace Street.

Mr. O'Keefe entertained his ushers at a farewell bachelor supper in Murphy's Hotel, Monday evening.

Irregularity

Is bad in every department of life, in meals, in sleeping hours, but especially when it is a question of womanly habit. Not only is irregularity of this kind a sign of female disease, but, unless cured, it will cause other dangerous troubles, on account of the poisons which are thus allowed to remain stored up in the system.

If you suffer in this way, then, waste no time, but get a bottle of Wine of Cardui, at your nearest drug store, and take the medicine, according to the directions which go with every bottle, until you are restored to health.

Mrs. Lucinda Johnson, of Fish Creek, Wis., writes: "I suffered for fourteen (14) years with irregularity, causing great pain, and would often have to stay in bed and call a doctor. At last my mother begged me to try Wine of Cardui, which I did, and by the time I had used 3 bottles I knew it was doing wonders. I kept right on taking it, and now I can truly say that I am cured. I can never say too much for Cardui, and I tell everyone what it has done for me."

Wine of Cardui is a pure, medicinal preparation, made exclusively of vegetable ingredients, and containing nothing harmful to young or old. In the last 50 years it has benefited over a million women. All druggists sell it, in $1 bottles. Try it.

Times-Dispatch Patterns

LADIES' GATHERED SKIRT.
In Sweep Length, and with Five-Gored Upper Part and Straight-Flounce Lower Part.
Paris Pattern No. 1893.
All Seams Allowed.

This skirt is especially adapted to washable materials, as it has a beautiful sweep and hangs very softly. The upper part of the skirt is made in five gores, and is slightly full at the top. This makes it especially pretty for thin material where a drop skirt of another color may be used underneath, as it gives a shimmering sort of moiré effect.

The pattern is in 7 sizes—22 to 34 inches, waist measure. For 26 waist, the skirt requires 12 1/2 yards of material 20 inches wide, or 7 1/2 yards 36 inches wide, or 4 1/2 yards 42 inches wide.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

In ordering patterns be careful to give the correct number and address.
